While technically Ayudando Guardians, Inc. has merged into Ayudando Alpha, Inc., the defendants hold the company out as Ayudando Guardians, Inc., so that name will be used throughout.

with special needs. Ayudando receives benefits from the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) and Social Security Administration (SSA) on behalf of many of its clients. For these clients, Ayudando acts as a fiduciary or a representative payee. That is, Ayudando receives government benefits payments on behalf of its clients, pays the clients' expenses, and maintains the balance for the benefit of the clients.

2. Ayudando was formed by SUSAN K. HARRIS in 2004. It is primarily owned and operated by SUSAN K. HARRIS and SHARON A. MOORE. The board of directors consists of SUSAN K. HARRIS, WILLIAM S. HARRIS, SHARON A. MOORE, and CRAIG M. YOUNG exclusively.

3. As more fully described below, SUSAN K. HARRIS, WILLIAM S. HARRIS, SHARON A. MOORE, and CRAIG M. YOUNG, have embezzled millions of dollars from their special needs clients and used the money to support lavish lifestyles for SUSAN K. HARRIS, WILLIAM S. HARRIS, MOORE, YOUNG, and their families.

Count 1

4. From about November 2006, and continuing to about July 2017, in Bernalillo County, in the District of New Mexico, and elsewhere, the defendants, SUSAN K. HARRIS, WILLIAM S. HARRIS, SHARON A. In violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371.

Counts 2-11

1. From about January 2010, and continuing to about July 2017, in Bernalillo County, in the District of New Mexico, and elsewhere, the defendants, SUSAN K. HARRIS, WILLIAM S. HARRIS, SHARON A. MOORE, and CRAIG M. YOUNG, with intent to defraud, knowingly and unlawfully devised and intended to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses and representations, and for the purpose of executing and in order to effect the scheme and artifice to defraud and to obtain money and property by way of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, the defendants caused documents to be delivered by the United States Postal Service and a commercial interstate carrier, thereby affecting a financial institution.

The Scheme and Artifice

2. The defendants' scheme and artifice consisted of fraudulently extracting money from client accounts and disbursing that money to the defendants.

3. It was further part of the scheme and artifice that the defendants organized Ayudando to position it as a guardian, conservator, fiduciary, and representative payee for individuals needing assistance with their financial affairs.

4. It was further part of the scheme and artifice that the defendants set up client trust and company bank accounts in such a way that only SUSAN K. HARRIS and MOORE could check account balances, monitor account activity, or initiate transfers or payments.

5. It was further part of the scheme and artifice that the defendants transferred money from client trust accounts to the Ayudando "Petty Cash" and "Client Reimbursement" commingled accounts.

6. It was further part of the scheme and artifice that the defendants maintained an American Express account with cards issued to the defendants and several of their family members. The defendants and their family members paid for extensive personal charges on the cards, including luxury vacations, vehicles and more. The defendants paid off the American Express account each month with money from the Petty Cash and Client Reimbursement accounts. Between 2010 and 2017, the defendants diverted funds from the Petty Cash and Client Reimbursement accounts to the American Express account totaling more than $4 million.

7. It was further part of the scheme and artifice that the defendants forged and submitted false and fraudulent documents to the Department of Veterans Affairs. VA requires its fiduciaries to submit annual statements of accounts for each client, describing each client's money received, money spent, and assets, and including bank statements in support. The defendants created materially false and fraudulent statements of account, certifications of deposit, and bank statements, which substantially overstated the funds available in client accounts, and submitted them to VA to conceal and continue the defendants' theft from client accounts.

8. It was further part of the scheme and artifice that the defendants commingled their clients' funds in the Petty Cash and Client Reimbursement accounts, despite VA requirements that each clients' funds be kept in separate accounts.

9. It was further part of the scheme and artifice that the defendants concealed their theft from some clients' accounts by replacing the missing money with funds taken from other clients.

Executions of the Scheme

10. On or about the dates listed below, for the purpose of executing and in order to effect the scheme and artifice to defraud and to obtain money and property by way of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, the defendants caused the delivery by the United States Postal Service and a commercial interstate carrier to the Department of Veterans Affairs, 550 Foothill Dr., P.O. Box 58086, Salt Lake City, UT, 84158, according to the directions thereon, of documents, specifically statements of account, certifications of deposit, and bank statements, thereby affecting a financial institution, as approximately described below:
